

Other Relevant Resources

This tab holds information and resources relevant to our work that did not fit in previous categories

Type of..	Link to..	Title of...	Created by...	Summary...	Cost:
Resource List	https://carceralstudies.duke.edu/	Teaching the Carceral: Carceral Studies Network	Duke University Carceral State Working Group	From the resource: "This site, Teaching the Carceral, hosts publically shared resources for those seeking to teach or learn about the carceral state."	Free, references some paid items like books
Resource List	https://docs.google.com/document/d/110iDgPgpDuB_m1S5pPa_nc4wvYtpCWXkidMgq-Zh8U4/edit?usp=sharing	School Resources - Racism and Police Violence in America	Various (compiled by PDX educators)	Resources for educators, students and parents - including lesson plans, videos, interactive activities, professional development and additional reading materials revolving around racism (esp Black Lives Matter), police violence and other highly relevant to 2020 topics. Items are broken down by grade range/type of resource.	Free unless otherwise noted
Article	https://www.brennancenter.org/our-work/research-reports/hidden-plain-sight-racism-white-supremacy-and-far-right-militancy-law	Hidden in Plain Sight: Racism, White Supremacy, and Far-Right Militancy in Law Enforcement	Brennan Center for Justice	Summary from resource: "The government's response to known connections of law enforcement officers to violent racist and militant groups has been strikingly insufficient. " Published late August, 2020	Free
Video	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=up1AfQViroI&feature=youtu.be	Race After Technology	Princeton Public Library	1.5 hour presentation - Ruha Benjamin in Conversation with Eddie Glaude Jr. Focuses on how emerging technologies can reinforce White supremacy and deepen social inequity. See also: Benjamin's book, Race After Technology: Abolitionist Tools for the New Jim Code .	Free
Resource List	https://www.idha-nyc.org/decarcerating-care?mc_cid=ea8868106d&mc_eid=f016f7e5cf	Decarcerating Care	Institute for the Development of Human Arts	A developing resource list that includes a 2 hour video presentation by multiple groups and organizations that provide non-carceral approaches to mental health support and services, alongside a resource list that covers racism and mental health, abolition, and ways to respond to mental health care needs and crises without the police.	Free
Toolkit	https://docs.google.com/document/u/1/d/1rytbtFbHtH6UYRLzUQDf3h4gJ6noSPIAxAhHJsfo-QTw/mobilebasic	Evaluating Children's Books about Police: a toolkit for librarians and other evaluators of children's literature	Oakland Public Library	Guide to "help library selectors evaluate the books they offer for children about police officers and policing, and to consider how those books may impact the children in their community."	Free

Other Relevant Resources

This tab holds information and resources relevant to our work that did not fit in previous categories

Type of..	Link to..	Title of...	Created by...	Summary...	Cost:
Article	https://drive.google.com/file/d/1et0uNFgkXIPWgWvPnXDchLvRh-hJjEVf/view?usp=sharing	Decolonization is Not a Metaphor	Eve Tuck & K. Wayne Yang	via We Here, article engaging decolonization and critical thought	Free
Podcast	https://prentishemphill.com/new-page-4	Finding Our Way	Prentis Hill	"Finding Our Way is conversation between Prentis and activists, artists and leaders to discuss how to realize the world we want through our own healing and transformation. It is an exploration into ourselves, and the skills we need to create and embody the world we want. Throughout the first season, we'll be diving into topics like embodiment, boundaries, harm, and creativity. It will be a space to share struggles, mistakes, and distill some lessons learned from our journeys up to this point."	Free
Video	https://youtu.be/QP9x1NnCWNY	Decolonization is for Everyone	Nikki Sanchez - TEDx Talks - 2019	A history of colonization exists and persists all around us. Nikki discusses what colonization looks like and how it can be addressed through decolonization. An equitable and just future depends on the courage we show today.	Free
Book	https://litwinbooks.com/books/feminists-among-us/	Feminists Among Us: Resistance and Advocacy in Library Leadership	Editors: Shirley Lew and Baharak Yousefi	"Feminists Among Us: Resistance and Advocacy in Library Leadership makes explicit the ways in which a grounding in feminist theory and practice impacts the work of library administrators who identify as feminists. Recent scholarship by LIS researchers and practitioners on the intersections of gender with sexuality, race, class, and other social categories within libraries and other information environments have highlighted the need and desire of this community to engage with these concepts both in theory and praxis."	$22
Webinar	https://vimeo.com/418155362	The Library Commons: An Imagination and an Invocation	Jennie Rose Halperin - #LIBREV(olution)	"As professionals concerned with the free and open dissemination of knowledge, librarians could represent the commons in their communities, but more often than not fall into the neoliberal paradigm of the managerial business class and free-market values. This talk will introduce librarians to modern commons theory and present alternatives, from Undercommons to worker power to decolonization, and outline alternative paths of resistance for knowledge workers striving to envision the world as it could be, not as it is."	Free

Other Relevant Resources

This tab holds information and resources relevant to our work that did not fit in previous categories

Type of..	Link to..	Title of...	Created by...	Summary...	Cost:
Article	https://fobaziettarh.com/2020/11/18/this-is-who-we-are/	This is who we are	Fobazi Ettarh	Proposes the only way to move forward as a field is to acknowledge and confront that librarianship is entrenched in "white supremacy, racism, homophobia, transphobia, ableism, and so on"	Free
Article	http://www.emilydrabinski.com/are-libraries-neutral/	Are libraries neutral?	Emily Drabinski	Discusses neutrality as it relates to real, tangible materials and issues.	Free
Toolkit	https://drive.google.com/file/d/0BxlqoamGVS6IMV9oSyoZNGIYNEE/view	Safer Party Toolkit	The Audre Lorde Project, The Safe OUTside the System Collective, The Safe Neighborhood Campaign	Guide to creating safe spaces - prioritizes preventing and intervening in violence including police violence.	Free
Resource List	https://docs.google.com/document/d/1mFWdeCSySTNv98Qi1pkTsU5oYto2lvyspFL466GUbjU/edit?usp=sharing	AbLA Non-Carceral Resource List	Member of AbLA	This is a list of mostly Asian/Asian American-centered non-carceral links and resources in reaction to the Atlanta shootings and the rise of Anti-Asian hate, discrimination and violence during the pandemic	Free
Report	https://www.hivlawandpolicy.org/sites/default/files/Roadmap_For_Change_full_report.pdf	Roadmap for Change	Catherine Hanssens, Aisha C. Moodie-Mills, Andrea J. Ritchie, Dean Spade, and Urvashi Vaid.	Federal Policy Recommendations for Addressing the Criminalization of LGBT People and People with HIV, Making the Case for Federal Policy Change: Essays and Excerpts	